To enliven the divine spark in people's hearts through contemplative formation

Aim

The SILOAM program is concerned with the formation of competent, experienced spiritual directors. Siloam Program

Siloam is recognised by the Australian Ecumenical Council for Spiritual Direction (AECSD) as meeting its standards for the formation of spiritual directors in Australia.

Siloam's approach to formation is soundly experiential and is based on solid theological, biblical and social sciences theory and praxis. A discerning, contemplative attitude is integral to all seminars and practical work.

Regular reflection, prayer time and a commitment to one's own spiritual direction are essential to the program.

Siloam participants and staff form a faith community. Four residential weekends are held during the program to pray as a community, to share faith and to reflect on ministry.

On successful completion of the Siloam program, students receive a Certificate of Completion from Heart of Life.

Graduate Diploma in Spiritual Direction

Students who meet the 'previous Degree' and other criteria, may undertake the Siloam program as a Graduate Diploma in Spiritual Direction. Enrolment is made through Yarra Theological Union (YTU) and the Graduate Diploma is awarded by the University of Divinity (UD) - see 2017 YTU Handbook.

Students applying to study the Graduate Diploma in Spiritual Direction must provide YTU with the original or certified copies of relevant transcripts.
